

CBC's walk/bike california 2007 conference

APBP's professional development seminar

DAVIS, CALIFORNIA | SEPTEMBER 11-14, 2007

How can planners, engineers and public works directors make walking and cycling safer and more accessible for everyone?

What do local bike advocates need to know about providing bicycle safety education to kids, adults, employers and others?

What can we learn from communities like Davis, Calif., where walking and cycling are essential elements of the local transportation mix?

At the Walk/Bike California 2007 Conference, you'll:

- ✓ Learn how to help make your streets safer for walking and cycling
- ✓ Become a stronger pedestrian and bicycle advocate in your community and at the State Capitol
- ✓ Learn about the CBC-sponsored Complete Streets Act

The conference is California's premier networking opportunity for:

- Transportation engineers and planners
- Bicycle and pedestrian coordinators
- Bicycle and pedestrian advocates
- Landscape architects
- Urban designers
- Elected officials

This year's program features:

- Presentations by more than 70 experts on policy, advocacy and culture, education and outreach programs, and facilities
- Professional development seminars sponsored by the Association of Pedestrian and Bicycle Professionals
- Pre- and post-conference workshops
- Walking and cycling tours of Davis, Calif.
- Film festival

Registration:

Full registration (nonmember)	$329
Full registration (CBC/APBP member)	$318

Registration rates increase after July 31, 2007— register today!

Learn more and register online today at www.walkbikecalifornia.org

Coordinated by the California Bicycle Coalition in partnership with the Association of Pedestrian and Bicycle Professionals and California Walks